

PONY EXPRESS

The modern locks are from India. The emblems have been soldered on to the locks. The locks come with different station numbers stamped on them. The biggest problem is the lettering. They didn't use this modern style of lettering 150 years.

Here is a picture showing the original shipping box this lock was sent in from India.