

CAST RAILROADS

The emblem on this specialty lock was pressed into the metal using a die to raise the lettering and shield.

The above 4 locks were new finds in 2006.

The above lock is another fake fancy back.

There are several locks with different CS numbers on them.

This fake is made to look like it was made by the Wilson-Bohannon Lock co.

You can see that this is a very poor casting.

